CELEBRATE WITH LOU'S

On Sunday, February 3, Lou's Italian Specialties kicks off its first Big Game catering offerings since recently opening its doors in Denver's Cole neighborhood. Lou's Italian Specialties is the latest concept from Bridge & Tunnel Restaurant Group, the team behind Rosenberg's Bagels and Delicatessen and Famous Original J's Pizza.

Lou's is an old-world style Italian delicatessen and marketplace, offering traditional delicatessen-style to-go service for its extensive menu featuring hot and cold subs, house-made pasta, fresh mozzarella made daily, soups, salads, and seasonally inspired dishes, as well as homemade Italian sausages and several authentic Italian pastries. Additionally, Lou's sells a curated selection of imported and domestic old-fashioned Italian grocery store items.

Paying homage to their New Jersey roots, the chefs at Lou's Italian are pulling out all the best plays to feed hungry fans on the biggest game day of the year.
